BABE DIES FROM EATING PILLS CONTAINING STRYCHNINE

EFFORTS TO SAVE HER LIFE FUTILE

Margaret Aquelina, 18 Months Old, Succumbs After Eating Pills Containing Poison, Despite Efforts of Physician

AN ANTIDOTE FAILS

Mother Left the Babe In Hallway While She Visited a Sister In the Same Building — Funeral of Child Is Held This Morning

Margaret Aquilina, 18-months old, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Aquilina, 318 Fallowfield avenue, died yesterday afternoon at 12.15 o'clock, three-quarters of an hour after the child had eaten some pills of strychnine, belladonna, alvia and ipecac, which she had found while playing about the house. Returning to the room in a few minutes after she had left it, Mrs. Aquilina found her child eating the pills, which she evidently thought was candy. She immediately took the pills away from her daughter and administered an antidote. This failing, she rushed to a local physician's office, where every effort was made to save the child, but to no avail.

Margaret is survived, besides her parents, by her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Aquilina of Fallowfield avenue, and Mr. and Mrs. Carlo De Carlo of Houston, Texas, her grandparents.

Mrs. Aquilina had left the babe in the hallway, while she called on a sister, who lives in the same building. It was on her return that she discovered the child.

The matter was reported to Deputy Coroner Michael T. Crowley, who made investigation, and found the facts in accordance with reports as stated. He will take up the case with Coroner William Greenlee as to the propriety or necessity of an inquest being held.

Funeral services took place this morning at 10 o'clock in St. Jerome's Catholic church. Interment was made in Calvary cemetery.

WILLIAM S. ABEL IS ADJUDGED GUILTY

ATTEMPT MADE TO SAVE G. O. P. RATES

Washington, May 8.—Senate administration Republicans made peace overtures to the Progressives in a final effort to save the G. O. P. tax rates.

Republican leaders let it be known that they would act favorably on Progressive farm relief legislation if the Progressives would vote for a 37 1-2 percent maximum surtax.

Progressives are said to have refused, feeling that they can pass their farm relief plan without help from the regulars.

If some arrangement could be made it would mean defeat for the Democratic rates now in the tax bill just as they are now approaching final adoption.

The Democrats and Progressives last night put into the tax bill the graduated tax on undistributed corporation profits, instead of the existing flat tax on corporations. The vote was 43 to 32 and eight from the Republican side joined the Democrats. This provision is opposed by President Coolidge.

The jury in the case of William S. Abel of this place, charged with the unlawful manufacture, possession, and sale of liquor brought in a verdict of guilty, in accordance with the indictment and recommendation of the grand jury, it coming to an agreement in the case and returning a sealed verdict, which was read in court this morning. Abel was sentenced by the court to pay a fine of $200 and costs, and to serve eight months in the Allegheny County workhouse.

The counsel for the defense insisted that the testimony be taken by the court reporter, which indicated that an appeal would be taken in case of conviction.

The Abel case has attracted considerable attention and notoriety in the county due to the fact that it was largely the province and duty of the [illegible] to determine which old copper boiler, which was seized by the officers of the law, was being used as Abel asseverated for a wash boiler, or for the purpose, as alleged, for the illegal manufacture of liquor.

The Game Tomorrow Will Be Started At 5:30 P. M.

Charleroi will formally open the baseball season here, Jupiter Pluvius giving his sanction, tomorrow at 5:30 p. m. The locals will have as their opponents the fast Homestead G. M. C. club, an aggregation that showed its class when, in assisting Jeannette to pry off the baseball lid in the Westmoreland county town, defeated that crack aggregation, with Eddie Hartman pitching, 6-1.

Charleroi will offer in its lineup a portion of the old faces in tomorrow's contest. There will be found Harry Beatty on the firing line; Captain "Bill" Phillips will be on first base; Steve Stanapier, the ex-Green City star will be stationed at second; Smith will be perched on third, and Charlie Davis and Consonery will be in the outfield. Of the new men, Gannon, formerly of the Homewood Tressers will be behind the bat, Waite, also formerly of the Tressers, and who has been in the Southern league, will be stationed at shortstop, and Lew Phillips, brother of Captain "Bill" Phillips, will be seen in the outfield.

This is the same combination that tied the Harmarville Consumers, semi-professional champions, in the contest at Harmarville Tuesday night, and the fans and the public will have the opportunity tomorrow to see just how the local favorites perform. We all know what Lew Phillips is capable of; what Beatty can do, and the rest of the bunch, while in Waite, Manager Mathers says he has the "sweetest shortstop" that has cavorted around short field in this section.

Charleroi will meet the Waynesburg team at Waynesburg, today. Latriam formerly of the American Legion club, Monessen, will pitch for Charleori.

WEST NEWTON TO OPEN SEASON ON SATURDAY

West Newton will inaugurate their season on Saturday with the Finkelhor club being their opponents in the first struggle at the Yough Valley town.

Bill Goehring, the West Newton manager, has a good club lined up for the opening contest, which will likely find High on the firing line, with Frank Mills doing the receiving. West Newton intends to be in the thick of the struggles for recognition among the leaders of independent baseball this summer and have combed the district in their search for players. By combining last year's West Newton club with that of the Stoney Jones, the team shapes up at a strong aggregation.

WOMAN TO WOMAN IS FILM TRIUMPH

Woman to Woman, is the attraction at the Coyle for three days, today, tomorrow and Saturday.

The story which was adapted from Michael Morton's powerful play of the same name, deals with the sacrifices a dainty little French girl makes for the man of her heart and their son. She gives freely with no thought of self or the hardships she will have to endure, her one idea being that her loved ones shall have the best that life can offer.

It is an appealing picture and Betty Compson's delineation of the heroine, Delorme, is an artistic triumph. She is gay, she is sad, she is smiling; she is wistful; and every minute of the time she is absolutely natural. She has scenes of supreme drama, but she never once expresses her emotions by over-acting. She is literally the personification of the brave little French woman and the onlookers share her joys and sorrows.

Clive Brooks as the man in the case wins instant sympathy. He is no dashing villian who kisses and runs away. Duty calls him on the eve of their wedding from the woman he adores. A wound on the head deprives him of his memory and prevents him from returning to her. When they finally meet, he is married to another woman (played by Josephine Earle). His grief is pitiful, but he faces the situation with a frankness and firmness one cannot help admiring.

Sisters are people who wonder if a man's bridge will boss him as wisely as they have.

PIRATES ARE BEATEN MAINLY THROUGH KAUFMANN'S PITCHING

The Pittsburgh Pirates were beaten yesterday on Forbes field by Chicago by a score of 5-1, mainly through the pitching of Kaufmann, the Cubs' kid pitcher.

Pittsburgh missed a golden opportunity to emerge from the second to the first division by reason of their defeat. The Cubs played a better all-around game, hit better and fielded faultlessly. One of the features was the appearance of Michaels, who hails from Etna, who played short for the Chicago team. This youth, who had a brief trial with the Pirates, played his position well, and made two hits. He took Adams' place, who is in a hitting slump. Cuyler took Captain Carey's place in the field but Carey expects to get back in the closing contest of teh series with the Cubs today.

The Chicago club hit Cooper opportunely, forcing the star lefthandler's retirement. Babe Adams ascended the mound, where he was greeted with cheers but the veteran has a sore arm, and was not able to carry through the burden relinquished by Cooper.

HARDWARE FIRM MOVING TO ITS NEW STOREHOUSE

Grant's hardware, one of the pioneer business houses of Charleroi and the Monongahela valley, formally took possession of their splendid new warehouse, 223 Fallowfield avenue, the construction of which was begun the first of the year, today.

The warehouse is a three-story brick, made necessary by the large and continually growing business of the store, and the further fact that it hasn't the room for the proper display of goods and to wait on and cater to the wants of their customers. By the acquisition of the ware house, Grant's hardware, Curtis S. Bliss, manager, will be better able to cater to the trade and take care of the big business of the store.

The warehouse was especially needed to take care of the heavy goods of the firm, and now that it is in use the business of the store will move on in even more prosperous way than ever.

"BAWLED OUT" MINE LABORER KILLS FOREMAN

Hazelton, Pa., May 8—Because he was "bawled out," Louis Caippioni, a mine laborer at the Buck Mountain workings of the Central Pennsylvania quarry, construction and stripping company, near here, killed his foreman, Cosma Alfreno, 38, with a spike bar in a sudden rage, according to authorities today.

Alfreno called the man down for disobeying the rules, police say, and a quarrel followed. Caippioni grabbed a heavy iron spike bar and felled the foreman. Then he brutally crushed his skull as the man lay helpless, according to the police.

Caippioni was arrested near the scene of the murder and is being held without bail. He refuses to talk.

A Suggestion

"Well, law suzz!" ejaculated Mrs. Johnson in the midst of her reading. "This is shore funny: A professor, up there in the East some'rs, is going to try to larn young apes to talk."

"Hum!" returned Gap Johnson of Rumpus Ridge. "If it don't cost too much we mought get him down yur to try his scheme on our baby. The little feller don't do much now but cuss."

No Consolation

The vicar, after a heavy defeat, was returning disconsolate from the links.

"Cheer up," said his opponent, "you'll win at the finish. Why, you'll be burying me one day, I expect."

"But even then," said the vicar, "it will be your hole!"

MAY DELAY FARM RELIEF MEASURE

Washington, May 8—With a clearly defined legislative program agreed upon the House today began cleaning up its remaining business to prepare for adjournment June 7.

Republican Leader Longworth served notice that under no consideration would the date be deferred. If the tangled situation in which farm relief is involved fails to clear up, he said the House would adjourn without passing a farm relief bill. Nothing but the refusal of the senate to adjourn will keep the House formally in session during the conventions, he declared. Even then, House members would be free to attend the conventions under a recess plan.

The House program prior to adjournment follows:

1—Agree to the proposed date for Japanese exclusion included in the immigration bill report.

2—Pass some sort of farm legislation, preferably a bill which does not involve large expenditures.

3—Defeat or greatly modify the Barkley bill abolishing the railroad labor board.

4—Pass the veterans' legislation including hospital authorization and revision of veterans' bureau laws.

5—Attend to a number of minor necessary bills.

With four weeks remaining house leaders were confident this program could be adhered to with the possible exception of a farm relief bill.

THE LITERARY PROLETARIAT

Writing of the death of Marie Corelli, whose fiction delighted a vast number of readers, including Queen Victoria, but greatly displeased professional critics, a metropolitan editor remarks that such popualrity could not have been achieved by a writer of no merit, and goes on to say: "She belonged to the literary proletariat and wrote for it, very successfully. It was no small achievement, and it can be said for her that while she often presented life as it is not, she never presented it in a way to harm even the most innocent of her innumerable readers. Books worse than hers are published every day by authors whom the reviewers treat with the respect they withheld from Miss Corelli. She gave innocent pleasure to many thousands of people who probably would read nothing at all except for the existence of books like hers, and all she wrote was decent and as honest as she could make it."

After all was it not better to do this than to write books that are praised by jaded critics largely because they are "different" and that never reach the heart of the people? All countries have their writers for the "literary proletariat," who, though they may not serve "art," perform real service for the multitude. Too often modern writers of a higher grade in matters of form succeed only in pleasing the cultivated literary taste while doing great injury to immature minds by their pessimistic outlook on life and moral unsoundness generally. Obvously the true ideal is literary finish combined with moral soundness, and only productions can hope to survive, contrary to the view that now seems to prevail among many critics as well as many producers.

COULD NOT WALK BECAUSE OF PAIN

Bad Case of Woman's Illness Remedied by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

St. Louis, Missouri.—"I had such a bad case of female trouble that I could not walk because of the pains from inflammation. My back was all done up. I could hardly bend, could not go up stairs because of weakness, and no one could possibly be in worse shape than I was. I have taken twelve bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I am a strong woman now and can work down any of my neighbors. They wonder how I can do so much work. I dare say that I have recommended your medicine to a thousand women. A little book was thrown at my door, and that is how I first learned of it."—Mrs. D. M. BEAUCHAMP, 1104 Morrison Avenue, St. Louis, Mo.

Letters like this bring out the merit of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. They tell of the relief from such pains and ailments after taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

In a recent country-wide canvass of purchasers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, 98 out of every 100 report they were benefited by its use. For sale by druggists everywhere.

PROGRAM FOR. NATIONAL BOYS' WEEK

will be held. The parade will traverse the different streets of town. Forming at First street and McKean avenue, it will march to Second street, to Washington avenue, to Tenth street, to Fallowfield avenue, to Second street, and thence to the baseball grounds, where lunch will be served to every boy in the parade. Each boy in line will be furnished with an American flag, and everyone taking part will also be supplied with a ticket to one of the various theatres of Charleroi. The parade will be reviewed from the front porch of the Charleroi Elks Club by the borough officials, and school boards of Charleroi and nearby towns. Seven troops of Boy Scouts from Charleroi and one from Roscoe, with all the boys from the grade schools and High schools of Charleroi, Lock No. 4, Speers, and other towns are expected to be in line. For all boys who are unable to walk in the parade the committee has arranged for transportation. The committee in charge of this day request that the citizens and business houses decorate their respective places of business and homes. E. W. Patton is chief marshal, and he will have as his aides Guy Woodward, Bannister Roberts, Charles Fiedler, Griffith Nichols, John Clutter, Carroll Gaut, Henry Highfield, Michael Lombardo, L. H. Woods, Raymond Pardiny, Joe Tuccelli and Paul Tomasky. A large tent will be erected at the baseball park, where each boy will be served with a lunch free of charge after the parade.

Friday, May 16. — "Boys' Day at Home."

The purpose of the day at home is to emphasize the home as the greatest institution on earth for character building and good citizenship. This is an opportunity for the parents to make the home a gala occasion for the boy. Everything done in the home for the boy should be for the boy that he may appreciate the love that his parents may have for him. Give the boy the surprise of his life and convince him that home is the best place to be. If you don't have a boy of your own find a homeless one and add him to your family circle for the evening.

Saturday, May 17.—Boys' Day Out of Doors."

This, the last day of the week, will be a busy one, starting at 9:30 in the morning when a Fun Fest will be held at the baseball park. This will be in charge of Arch Osborne, and he has planned for events that will furnish plenty of fun for the boys. There will be three-legged races, barrel race, shoe-tying races and the like. At 11 o'clock there will be a Captain Kidd Treasure hunt. A half dozen prize packages will be hidden in various places throughout town and the boys will get on the trail, the prize going to the boy who finds them. At 1 o'clock a Charleroi Boy Scout Championship will be held and will last until 3:30. Events arranged for this championship are pup tent pitching, fire by friction, first aid races, knot-tying contest, water boiling, semaphore signaling, wig-wag signaling, wall scaling, patrol signal tower and tug-of-war. At 4 o'clock the boys will be guests at a baseball game played between Charleroi and another team. At night a campfire will be held for the boys at a site selected on Maple Creek.

JURY IS OUT BUT A VERY SHORT TIME

SPARKS CIRCUS HERE SATURDAY

Saturday, May 10, will be a joyful day for most persons, whatever their age may be, who live in the vicinity of this town, for on that day the Sparks Circus will exhibit here

It was inevitable that the Sparks Circus should achieve absolute perfection in its performance this year. This statement s borne out by what has been published about this big three-ring circus in the newspapers in the cities where it has already exhibited.

"From the sumptuously mounted opening spectacle," said the Atlanta Georgian on April 5," to the thrilling leaps in the steeplechase finale, the Sparks Circus brought an array of arenic displays and feature outdoor acts which entitle this show to rank among the topnotchers."

And on the same date, the Macon (Ga.) Telegraph declared: "Perhaps no circus on the road spells adventure and beauty, romance and color, more than the Sparks Circus, which performed in Macon on Thursday to the delight of young hearts—and perhaps as many old ones, if indeed any heart could be old on circus day.

Dainty little Naida Miller, in all the loveliness of youth, who skips a bout and dances with such ease and grace on a silver wire high above the ground. She will be seen here with the Sparks Circus on Saturday, May 10.

Besides Naida, there are over a score of arenic displays and novelties that are top-liners. In addition,there is a big menagerie of wild beasts from the jungles of foreign lands.

"Skill and grace vied with color. The Sparks 'outfit' has a surprisingly large number of fine and costly animals to begin with, and this department was made complete by the various able trainers and managers. The lion, tiger and bear acts in particular seem to be unsurpassed in the circus world, and the performances of the horses are no less than marvelous.

"The Telegraph highly recommends the show to the people wherever it may go. It is a treat that it should be unlawful for the youngsters to miss, and it is a tonic and medicine that all of us older folks should be forced by our family physician to take occasionally."

After characterizing the opening number, "An Egyptian Fantasy," as the most gorgeous ever seen under a circus tent, The Daily Advance, of Lynchburg, Va., said in part: "The spectacle is rapidly followed by a thrilling program of skillfully executed circus acts unequaled in merit."

taking harsh purgatives like Salts and Calomel when you are suffering from those horrid sick headaches and bilious attacks, but take a dose of a purely vegetable compound — LEBANON HERB TABLETS. They act directly on the liver and kidneys but do not cause purging, only a gentle movement of the bowels being apparent. Get a 35c or $1 box and begin taking tonight. Wagner's Pharmacy has them.

Pete Dujack, aged 18 years, of Donora, was found guilty yesterday of involuntary manslaughter, the jury being out but a short time. Sentence has not yet been pronounced. The young man, who has been out on bail has been remanded to jail until called for sentence.

During a quarrel at Donora, on February 6, at the home of George Rebeck, in which another young man, John Tirpak, got in a tussle with Rebeck and was getting the worst of it, Dujack picked up an iron shoe last and hit Rebeck over the head, inflicting a fatal wound.

Russell Wright of Canonsburg, was convicted of driving an automobile while intoxicated, by a jury in Judge James I. Brownson's court yesterday morning. The case went to the jury yesterday. Wright, with a party of six other young men, left Canonsburg at 2 a. m. on January 1 in a Durant five-passenger automobile for Washington. Going through Houston at a speed of 45 miles an hour, according to the testimony, the car hit a Ford coupe coming out of the McConnell's Mills road, veered across the road, smashing into a Chevrolet touring car taking gas at the Patch g arage, demolishing it and then broke off a gasoline pump and running about 12 feet further was overturned. Although three cars and several people were involved in the triple s mash, no one was injured. It was alleged that Wright was very much intoxicated as were several other members of the party in the car. The prosecution was made by A. B. Patch of the Patch Auto company, Houston.

In deference to the jury's recommendation for extreme mercy, the court sentenced young Wright, who is only 17 years old, to pay the costs, a fine of $200 and spend one day in jail.

A BANQUET RECALLS BRANCH'S

enjoyable musical program was given by the following: Mrs. Bertha Kleist, Miss Neva Calistri, Miss Lillian Calisiri, Master Thomas Carroll, Miss Teresa Bailey and Miss Anna Fiedler. The accompanists were Miss Julia Sullivan and Miss Anna Carroll.

Credit is due the ladies who prepared and served the banquet. Visitors were present from Pittsburgh, Monessen, and Roscoe.

Quite Short.

Employer — "Your grandmother's funeral service seems to have been pretty brief." Office Boy—"Yes, sir; the game was forfeited in the first inning."

Be Discreet.

We should never by shunning dangers cause ourselves to seem cowardly and timid, but we should also avoid unnecessarily exposing ourselves to danger.

They Would Not.

What a fine world this would be if those who have money would use it as those who haven't money think they would use it if they had it, which they wouldn't.

Knew He Belonged.

Girl's Father—"Now that you are engaged to my daughter I want you to feel like one of the family." Young Man—"I do, sir. Your wife is bossing me already."

Distrust of Ourselves.

What commonly prevents us from exhibiting the bottom of our hearts to our friends is not so much any distrust we have of them as the distrust we have of ourselves.

Art of Love-Making.

Few men understand the art of love-making, but women are always ready to afford them an opportunity in practice.

Traffic Heard 4,000 Feet Up.

The roar of traffic, reduced to a faint hum, can be heard in a balloon 4,000 feet above the streets of New York.

They Usually Do.

The best way for some to console themselves for their ignorance is to believe useless all that they do not know.

Heat From Springs.

Hot springs and geysers of Iceland are to heat cities of the country, and wooden pipe lines will carry the hot water, according to preliminary plans.

Hope an Unsafe Friend.

Hope is a pleasant acquaintance, but an unsafe friend. Hope is not the man for your banker, but he may do very well for a traveling companion.

Quite So.

If your compliments are always believed, your censure is perhaps more damaging than it ought to be.

Do They Think?

It seems to be difficult for modern poets to keep on thinking of the same theme for twenty or thirty pages.

New Oyster Beds.

Twenty miles of oyster beds in the Gulf of Mannar, between Ceylon and the southernmost coast of India, have been discovered. The beds are still young and the earliest date of maturity is 1926. The only other pearl fisheries of any importance in India at present are along the extreme southern coast and the Mergui islands, off southern Burma. These latter are exploited by Japanese divers and the production enters only slightly into Burmese exports.

Bottle's Long Voyage.

A bottle cast into the sea at Waikiki beach, Honolulu, January 1, 1909, recently washed ashore at Hueneme, Ventura county, California. In the tightly sealed bottle was found a note signed by an Iowa man in which he asks to be notified, so that the movement of the tides of the Pacific ocean, as indicated by the bottle's journey, may be made the basis of data for the American Society of Aquatic Research.

"Island of Black Cats."

The "Island of Black Cats" is a name applied to Chatham island in the Pacific ocean about 730 miles west of the coast of Ecuador. It is overrun with black cats; indeed, cats of no other color are seen there. These animals live in the crevices of the lava formation near the coast, and subsist by catching fish and crabs, instead of rats and mice.
